If two or more candidates lowest on the list have obtained an equal number of votes, a separate ballot shall be taken in order to decide which of them should be eliminated. The elimination shall, if no candidate secures the prescribed majority of votes, be made until two candidates only are left. If the two candidates left after the elimination secure an equal number of votes the ballot shall not be further repeated.

(e) If only one candidate has been nominated and he is deemed to have been elected under paragraph (a) supra, or if as a result of the ballot any one of the candidates has secured a majority of the votes as required by Rule (4), the election of such candidate shall not take effect until the Government have notified their approval of the same.

(7) The validity of election may be contested by a petition signed by at least three Councillors and not otherwise, provided that such petition shall reach the Deputy Commissioner within seven days from the date of the election and shall allege specific grounds for setting aside the election on account of material irregularity in the conduct thereof.

(8) Upon receipt of such petition, the Deputy Commissioner shall enquire personally or by some other officer deputed by him not below the grade of an Assistant Commissioner into the validity of such objection or objections.

(10) The election shall be subject to the approval of Government. In the event of no election being made within prescribed period, or in the event of an election held not being approved by Government or in the event of two candidates securing an equal number of votes, Government may appoint the President or Vice-President, as the case may be, or, may order a fresh election.
